RTD Implements Changes to Improve Customer Experience

Stockton, CA—On Sunday, June 3, San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) is implementing the following service changes. "After hearing feedback from our customers, we've decided to make modifications to our routes to better serve them," said RTD CEO Donna DeMartino.

Select routes will suspend service for the summer and resume service on July 29:

- 340
- 360
- 380
- 390

In order to improve connectivity to other routes, the following routes will have time changes:

- Hopper 2
- County Hopper 91
- Local route 520

The following Local routes will have changes to both time and route based on customer feedback:

- 515
- 555

County Hopper Route 90 will provide direct trips between San Joaquin County Hospital, Weston Ranch, and Conway Homes with new bus stops added along this route.

In addition to RTD's service changes, the current location of the Greyhound bus stop at the Downtown Transit Center (DTC) will also move on Sunday, June 3 to the RTD boarding platform area to improve passenger comfort and convenience.
