RTD Hosts Van Go! Exhibit at the Haggin Museum

Stockton, CA—San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) is thrilled to debut its new RTD Van Go! fleet, showing how the new county-wide ride-share service is making transportation a work of art.

On Wednesday, April 10 from 5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m., RTD invites the public to the Haggin Museum for a Van Go! exhibit where multiple Van Gogh-inspired vehicles will be on display. RTD CEO Donna DeMartino will present information about this new service; San Joaquin County Supervisor Chuck Winn and Stockton City Council Member Christina Fugazi are also scheduled to speak on the importance of this new service and public transit for our community as a whole. Attendees are invited to enjoy complimentary appetizers and beverages, and to enter a drawing to win a Van Gogh-inspired original painting by local artist and teacher David Vallejo.

Please visit sjRTD.com/VanGo for details on the service and the event.
