RTD Offers Free Rides to Stockton Flavor Fest Weekend

Stockton, CA – San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) is partnering with Visit Stockton, with the support of the City of Stockton, to offer free rides on all Express and Local routes on Saturday, May 14, and Sunday, May 15, to welcome Stockton’s newest festival.

Stockton Flavor Fest is a two-day celebration of the city’s diverse cultures featuring global food offerings from local merchants, handmade artisan goods, craft beer and wine, interactive workshops and live art, local cultural performances, silent disco, kitchen and culinary demonstration, and access to exclusive events.

Festival attendees can skip the parking hassle and ride RTD for free. The following bus routes stop within a short walking distance of the Weber Points Events Center:

- Express Route 40
- Express Route 47
- Local Route 715
- Local Route 725

To plan your trip, use the RTD Trip Planner at sjRTD.com/trip-planner.
