RTD Board Appoints Kimberly Turner as Interim Chief Executive Officer

Stockton, CA— The Board of Directors of the San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) has announced the appointment of former Deputy CEO Kimberly Turner as Interim Chief Executive Officer, effective February 23, 2026.

The Board took this action to ensure continuity of leadership and operational stability as the agency continues delivering essential transit services throughout San Joaquin County.

As Interim CEO, Kimberly will oversee day-to-day operations, support staff across all departments, and continue advancing RTD's strategic priorities, including service reliability, customer experience improvements, and financial stability.

Ms. Turner brings senior leadership experience at both the federal and state levels of government, with a background in public sector oversight, regulatory compliance, and transportation policy. Her work has included oversight of publicly funded programs and coordination across multiple government agencies.

"Continuity and accountability are critical during a leadership transition," said Board Chair Derek Graves. "I know that Ms. Turner is committed to maintaining operational performance, supporting our team, and delivering safe, dependable transit service to our riders."

San Joaquin Regional Transit District (RTD) is the regional transit provider for San Joaquin County. RTD's mission is to provide a safe, reliable, and efficient transportation system for the region.
